

Item 5 Staff Qualifications and Experience

All of our Engineering Staff have completed or are completing recognised apprenticeship schemes or have complete equivalent training courses with all associated examinations.

We ensure that their training is updated and items that require renewing are included on our training matrix. All members of staff have CPD opportunities and are actively encouraged to complete any associated technical or administration courses and complete necessary examinations.

All certificates are kept on record and logged on our training matrix so that their progress can be monitored.